Virtual Meeting of the Mayor & Council
May 27, 2020

BOARD OF EDUCATION (April 20)

I was able to tune in at 8 pm as there was a conflict with the Mayor & Council meeting. I reminded everyone to complete their census. Superintendent Michael Polizzi asked me to write a blurb that will be sent to all New Milford families with children in the New Milford schools.

BoE chair Paige Ryan noted that an email went out to people who purchased tickets to the spring High School musical this year. The email was to advise ticket holders that they could get refunds or donate the ticket money to a future performance. She noted an email I sent earlier today indicating that the 8 people (including myself) I purchased tickets for would donate the money.

BOARD OF EDUCATION (Special Budget Meeting, April 29)

Discussion of the Budget for the school year 2020-2021.

A video was shown. It was entitled "A Year in Review" and "Where We Are Now."

The total budget is $141,065,830. That represents a $105.30 increase in school taxes on a home assessed at $329,101 (the average assessed value of a home in New Milford.) On a home assessed at $500,000, the increase would be $175.00.

I thanked Superintendent Polizzi on sending an email to everyone on the school list regarding the importance of the census.

BOARD OF EDUCATION (May 4)
